Dear Bro. Threw the mace of Gods Law in good health in body but agreed my spirit in consequence of sore oppression I've been a member of the Methodist Church a number of years, and have fought there many a battle sore, but never more, was I so wounded as at the present time.

Lamentable, to relate, As A shepherd I endeavour to defend my flock, but in vain my suffrage is gone my hands are tied and my mouth is gaged, I am not allowed to speak for myself nor for my beloved society, it is to you we fly for help, Oh lend us aid; harken to our cries and give ear to our complaints and remedy our case, ~~Thou~~ man you give to rule over us for good (I pause) is not what he ought to be. for the sake of it

Few dead weights, to the society, he has assumed the authority of A Conference (as we think) and over ruled our discipline.
Our society is numerous consisting of between Eighty and Ninety members, nine tenths of whom, earnestly solicit deliverance, without we are likely to suffer great loss.
The officers (with the exception of one) consider themselves treated with great contempt.

The society generally believes, he has ruled with extreme partiality, and we doubt his veracity in many instances, and utterly refuse his sovereignty.

O Anna Bro. Men as A free and independant people ought to take into consideration the disadvantages resulting from tyrannical principles

Both in church and state and as we consider our privileges curtailed we solicit your reverent protection and this almost without dissenting voice for the major part of the society consider this time sacred in attending his appointment. I add no more but conclude with the expressed respects of this society and your Neworthy friend
 Jonathan Doty

B. Bro. Pinley I want you if you regard me or this society to be shure to attend our next quarterly meeting
